

PRAY.NYC PRAYER SETS

Thank you for serving with Pray.NYC! We hope this guide will provide you with clarity around our vision and your role in it this season, and also stir up expectant hope for what God is doing and will do as we seek Him together.

VISION

Habakkuk 3:2

Lord, I have heard of your fame;

I stand in awe of your deeds, Lord.

Repeat them in our day,

in our time make them known;

in wrath remember mercy.

Prayer sets are a space to seek the tangible presence of God, to be transformed by meditation on His Word, and to partner with His will through intercession for revival.

PRAY.NYC VALUES

"In essentials unity. In non-essentials liberty. In all things love."

- Augustine of Hippo

- Unity
- Faith
- Praying the Word

PRAY.NYC DISTINCTIVES

The following are what we want to be distinctively true about the prayer culture at Church of the City. All of these stem from the desire to have a right view of God as we pray, never making the things we are praying for greater than the One we are praying to.

Who > What

We want people to be more aware of Who they are praying to, more than what they are praying for. (Psalm 121)

Known > Seen

We value being known by God more than being seen by men. Authority comes from the secret place. (Matthew 6:5)

Beauty > Brokenness

The beauty of Jesus is what compels us to contend for the broken places in our world. (2 Corinthians 3:18)

Reaching > Settling

We reach for God on behalf of our city. We intercede for what is happening in our cities, not just settling for who is in the room. He hears. He acts. We ask. (Isaiah 64:7, 2 Corinthians 10:4-5)

Contend > Concern

We go beyond the place of common concern, and take our concern to the place of contending for God to break in on behalf of others. We want to see the fame and deeds of God renewed in our day, nothing less. (2 Corinthians 10:4-5, Matt 6:10)

Consecration > Separation

We live our lives set apart to God in the midst of our world. We are not retreating from it, but invading it with a counter-cultural lifestyle. (John 17:15-19)

The Word › Our word

We value praying God's word, more than just our words. We pray from the richness of God's word rather than the poverty of our own hearts/circumstances. (Hebrews 4:12-13)

Jesus's intercession › Our intercession

We want to know what is on His heart and mind regarding what we are praying for. He lives to make intercession, so we desire to agree with him in prayer. (Hebrews 7:25, Romans 8:26)

His voice › Our voice

We desire to create an atmosphere and space for people to hear His voice, and allow us to pray in line with that. (Psalm 29, John 10:27)
His sheep hear his voice

Our voice › My voice

There is power in a corporate gathering of believers. We create space for an individual to hear from God, but also for people to gather and pray based on what they are hearing. (Matthew 18:19-20)

HOSTING LEADERSHIP FRAMEWORK

“Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere; I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked.”

- Psalms 84:10

Our leadership framework is shaped by the concept of hosting. Everything we do in a Pray.NYC prayer set is anchored around hosting the presence of God and inviting other people into that space. We are simply doorkeepers in the house, meant to open the doors (from within) so that other people can encounter the Living God.

HOSTING GOD

"He waits to be wanted." -A.W. Tozer

He is Worthy

"My name will be great among the nations, from where the sun rises to where it sets. In every place incense and pure offerings will be brought to me, because my name will be great among the nations," says the Lord Almighty."

- Malachi 1:11 NIV

He Speaks

"While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them."

- Acts 13:2 NIV

He Acts

"After consulting the people, Jehoshaphat appointed men to sing to the Lord and to praise him for the splendor of his holiness as they went out at the head of the army, saying: "Give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures forever." As they began to sing and praise, the Lord set ambushes against the men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and they were defeated."

- 2 Chronicles 20:21-22 NIV

HOSTING PEOPLE

Prepared Hearts. Prepared Spaces. Prepared People.

Consider when you invite people into your home. You prepare the space ahead of time, you think about the atmosphere, and what you are going to do. You do not just assume people know what to do or where to go. You prepare your space and yourself for them, and we want to carry that heart in prayer sets.

Heart:

Are you hosting the presence of God in your own heart?

We can't lead people to a place that we have not been ourselves. Hosting a prayer set is about cultivating an internal atmosphere of welcoming Jesus that allows us to invite others in. We want to bring something with us to the room, rather than hoping to find something there.

Spaces:

Excellence creates comfort.

The external atmosphere of a prayer set has an affect on the experiences people have within it. We want to make people feel like welcomed guests that we are not only excited to see, but ready to see.

People:

Does everyone know what is going to happen? Do they know Who they are praying to?

The biggest mistake we can make is assuming the people know or remember what is going to happen. Take the time to explain it to them. When inviting people into something, clarity is key.

HOSTING ROLES

Each prayer set role has unique parts to play, but the same purpose. Hosting the presence of God, and hosting people as they encounter Him.

- Prayer Leader
- Worship Leader
- Room Manager
- Host

PRAYER SET FORMAT

There is the freedom to flex with this framework as needed, however, always make sure to bring clarity to the room through explanation. Without consistency people don't feel safe, so avoid radical changes week to week.

Pre-Brief

Meet in the green room or basement 30 minutes before your set

1. How are you encountering Jesus this week?

-What attribute of Jesus is stirring your heart?

-What scriptures have been stirring you up this week?

2. What was the Holy Spirit highlighting in this set last week?

3. Remind people what we are going to do:

Lift our eyes

Hear from God

Contend with God for our city.

4. Consecration prayer

Repent of sin

Cast off distractions

Renounce our gifting
Ask for a fresh filling of the Spirit

Debrief -

What Revelation did we sense from God?

Did we create space for people to hear from God for themselves?

Did we create space for people to talk to God for themselves?

Did we reach for God?

Did we reach outside the room?

Do we have any opportunities for how we could have invited people to encounter what God was doing in the room?
